

Introducing the Leading Parent Partnership Award

This award helps your school to work in partnership with all parents and carers. Increasing parental participation in school life leads to improved pupil progress, punctuality, attendance and behaviour. The framework encourages parents to be involved in their children's learning leading to improved outcomes in all aspects of school life.

What's in the Leading Parent Partnership Award framework?

Transition

Support parents as their children transition through or between schools.

Participation

Include all groups of parents in supporting their children's learning and developing their own learning.

Communication

Take steps to ensure that the school is a welcoming, communicative and friendly place for parents.

Guidance

Provide clear and accessible guidance to help parents support their children's learning and development.

Induction

Provide clear guidance on the responsibilities of parents, school and pupils, and share this information with parents as a key part of the induction process.

Home-school links

Produce parent-friendly policies to establish effective home-school links.

Visit awardplace.co.uk/award/lppa for more information

Contact d.booker@portland.outwood.com if you would like to be involved in the LPPA!